

BRAGG WEDS HEIRESS AT REVOLVER POINT

The mystery of the disappearance of Hazel A. White, the Janesville heiress, has been cleared up.

She is married to Athol Bragg, a young Englishman who had been attentive to her; but to whom her parents objected.

— And the marriage took place at the point of a revolver in the hands of Charles White, father of the girl.

White told the story in Janesville today.

"When I heard of the disappearance of Hazel from the Y. W. C. A. I knew at once that it was Bragg," he said.

"So I went to Chicago, and searched until I found Bragg. When I found him I told him I would send him to the state's prison unless he told me where my daughter was. I also threatened to kill him.

"He was scared, and took me to a roominghouse on the South side. My daughter was there. She refused to talk to me, but when I asked her if she were married to Bragg, she admitted she was not.

"I told Bragg I would kill him unless he married her. Then I went with them to the courthouse got the license and witnessed the ceremony.

"I told Hazel she could get a divorce, or starve, or do anything else she pleased. I am done with her."

The troubles of Hazel White began when her parents tried to force her to marry a Janesville millionaire, according to Robert Taylor, the girl's first cousin.

She would not wed the millionaire, nor would her parents perband.

HOOT MON! ANDY RAISES JAWN D. $45,089,000.

Andrew Carnegie.

New York, Nov. 11.—It's John D.'s ante.

The announcement of Andrew Carnegie's new gift of $25,000,000 to the Carnegie corporation, all for sweet charity, brings the ironmaster's total benefactions up to the snug little figure of $220,800,000.

Rockefeller's total hand-outs to charity, exclusive, of course, of the occasional dime he gives to a worthy caddie, amounts to only $174,711,000.

Thus, as can be readily seen, the little Scotch steel merchant, whom Uncle Sam is chasing with a subpoena just at present, is $46,
